

LOCAL NEWS.

"Taming a Husband", at the opera house Thursday evening. Do not miss it.

Read the new advertisement of Messrs. Jackson & Johnson. They have bricks, lime and cement for sale at the new depot.

One of the delightful features of the attraction in the opera house Thursday night will be the music by the Royal Hungarian Orchestra.

FOR RENT: Two five-room houses. One available in December, the other January the 1st. Apply to J. L. MIMS.

Miss Mary Fair spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Augusta and at the home of her brother, Mr. Warren Fair, in Beech Island.

Aiken had a chrysanthemum show last week. The prize winner was 13 inches in diameter—over 40 inches in circumference. Edgefield has some beauties but nothing that we have seen approaches Aiken's prize winner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Adams went down to Augusta on Tuesday morning to spend several days with the former's sister, Mrs. W. W. Hackett. Being able to take this trip shows how rapidly Mr. Adams is recuperating.

During October and thus far in November the Edgefield merchants have done a regular land-office business. The volume of business of those with whom we have talked greatly exceeds that of last fall.

The cast in the play that will be presented in the opera-house on Thursday evening consists of 14 actors and 6 actresses, which will be the largest troupe that has ever appeared before an Edgefield audience.

The Edgefield wives should go to the opera house on to-morrow evening and learn how to "tame" their husbands. The young ladies who are yet fancy free should go and take note of the many who are the possessors of a man who will need taming.

Mr. John B. Hill's plow business has grown too large to make deliveries in his buggy. He now delivers the Hill-Strom subsoil plow by the wagon load. An outfit of agricultural implements is not complete without a Hill-Strom plow—so say those who use them.

Mrs. John R. Tompkins and bright little George returned from Henderson, N. C., last Thursday, being accompanied by Mrs. Tompkins' sister, Miss Ruth Harris, who is a very beautiful young lady. She is very pleasantly remembered by the many friends he made during former visits to Edgefield.

FOR SALE: 500 bushels of Cotton Seed. They have been carefully ginned and can be relied upon as perfectly pure.

D. P. SELF, Plum Branch, S. C.

It is now lawful for people to shoot partridges at libitum on their own premises or on the lands of others when they have permission, but it is a misdemeanor to sell to someone else. If any are guilty of the wholesale slaughter of birds for market let them be punished and game will in a few years be more plentiful.

President Bailey is having the lower limbs of the old oaks upon the campus cut off and their appearance is greatly improved thereby. He is also removing a few of the trees that are nearly dead and will transplant others in their places. The many young trees and evergreens that Col. Bailey had planted on the college grounds last spring have grown rapidly and already greatly beautify the place.

PRESCRIPTIONS our specialty. We solicit your prescriptions, day or night. WE GUARANTEE pure drugs, accurate compounding, and reasonable prices.

W. E. LYNCH & CO.

FOR RENT: The house which until recently was occupied by Mr. C. E. May. Good well, pasture, tenant house and seventeen acres of land adjoining. Apply to Mr. C. E. May, or H. J. Forrest, Johnston, S. C.

Just received a car each of Rock Hill, Hackney and Chase City buggies, also a car of Old Hickory wagons. We are in a position to make very close prices.

Ask Dr. Prescott what his wife thinks of Mack's Leader Stoves. Edgefield Mercantile Company.

SILK SALE: Will close out 26 pieces silk now on hand at N. Y. cost to make room for new stock silk.

The Goldsboro, McFarland, Taylor, Cannady and Babcock Buggies are still going down the road ahead of all others. Edgefield Mercantile Company.

The Edgefield ladies who believe in making their homes attractive and beautiful will not allow the tall, massive and very handsome crystal glass vases to remain long at Lynch's. Have you seen them? They are "things of beauty" and will be a joy forever to the ladies who purchase them or receive them as a gift.

Since its formation, some eight or more years ago, there has never been a change by election in any of the county officials of Greenwood county. Every official has been re-elected each successive term. This is probably unequalled by any other county in the state and is a high tribute to the men who have been serving the people since the formation of the county.

The largest load of cotton that we have seen brought to this market this season was brought by Dr. J. C. Self on last Thursday. The heavy wagon had nine bales piled upon it and was drawn by six large, fat oxen. Dr. Self sold the cotton for something over 11 cents and has a hundred bales more that he will hold for a higher price. If such men as he will hold large lots of cotton it will enable those who can not afford to hold indefinitely to realize a better price.

Mr. J. D. Holstein, the efficient manager of the Lynch drug store, says his advertisement in our columns is selling the red letter Bibles for him. He has had to place a second order. The most beautiful assortment of testaments and Bibles ever brought to Edgefield can be seen at the Lynch store. Any binding, any price, from a well printed testament for 25 cents to the very large and handsomely bound family Bible for $7.50.

The large crates and cases of holiday goods have begun to arrive at Penn's. In a few days the entire store will be in full-dress holiday attire—ready for the early shoppers. Mr. Penn has excellent taste in selecting Christmas goods, and it is this that has made this old establishment such a widespread reputation and has won for it such a prestige. We shall have more to say next week of what Santa Claus will offer at Penn's.

Bottles containing medicine or drugs of any kind should never be thrown in the yard or about the premises. They should always be broken or their contents emptied upon the ground. A child died at Fort Mill, S. C., a few days ago from the effects of laudanum. Having found a bottle that had been thrown out of a window, and being unconscious of the danger, it drank freely of the contents.

We announced last week that probably Dr. Hull could save one of Mrs. J. Q. Cogburn's eyes. Later he abandoned all hope and told her that she would be totally blind. She returned from Augusta on Saturday. Mrs. Cogburn's friends everywhere sympathize with her deeply in the misfortune that has befallen her. Noble woman that she is, throughout all of her trouble she has been patient and is perfectly resigned to His will.

The S. C. C. I. cadets are now uniformed after the United States regulation style. The full dress uniforms were worn to church last Sunday for the first time, and had a detachment of the West Point corps been there instead they would not have appeared to greater advantage than did our own S. C. C. I. boys. And the young ladies have donned their new tailor-made uniforms also. While always admired on every occasion they were on Sunday last more particularly the cynosure of all eyes.

Mr. J. W. Peak has added sewing machines to his business. After considering the merits and demerits of the many machines that are on the market, he decided upon the celebrated "Wheeler and Wilson" as the best. A machine of this make is being used in the Advertiser household and we can testify to its superiority over other machines. Mr. Peak has had a young man travelling in the county taking orders. Should you need a machine—a good machine—and Mr. Peak's representative does not call upon you write him or call at his store when in town. Handsome Alex. Watson will show how they are operated, making a whole garment for you in three minutes—more or less, as the lawyers say.

You can get Floor Wax at TIMMONS BROS.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by G. L. Penn & Son and all Medicine Dealers.

Six richly costumed actresses will have prominent parts in "Taming a Husband." Special stage settings, good acting, good music. What more could you ask?

Mrs. C. T. Scaife was the guest of Capt. and Mrs. S. M. Rice several days last week. She is a lady of exceeding culture and very decided intellectuality, and is the wife of Rev. C. T. Scaife. At present they reside at Woodruff but contemplate moving to this section of the state.

We trust that the engagement of the minstrel show on last Monday is the last that it will ever have in Johnston. We can well afford to do without such a class of shows forever and forever—The Monitor.

Edgefield would have been afflicted with this show also had not our town authorities very wisely made the license so high that the manager refused to pay it. Gentlemen of the town council, keep the license on worthless shows up to the maximum.

Some colored people—in spite of the general prosperity that prevails, of which they enjoy a liberal share—argue of all manners of petty thefts in and about our town. In one instance two hens with their entire broods of chicks were taken from coops in a back yard and carried away bodily. But the theft that "caps the climax" was committed by a certain cook in Edgefield who stole a chair and bath tub. The idea of a negro stealing a bath tub! They are addicted to too frequent use of chairs but what earthly use has a negro for a bath tub? Nobody ever heard of them needing one in their business.

FOR SALE: Two-horse carriage in good condition. Too heavy for one horse is why offered for sale. Apply at the college to F. N. K. BAILEY

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of South Carolina is in session at Bennettsville this week. The Edgefield association is represented by Mrs. Dr. W. E. Prescott from Red Hill, Mesdames J. H. Tillman, W. E. Cogburn, C. E. Burt, A. L. Barker, Kate Black, and Misses Kathleen Glover and Earline Allen from the Edgefield Baptist church. By a unanimous vote the Edgefield Baptist church has instructed the ladies from this association to invite the Union to meet at Edgefield in 1906. It is generally hoped that the invitation will be accepted.

Elsewhere in our columns will be found an advertisement of Mr. W. L. Daniel, executor of the estate of the late Mrs. Adeline DeVore, in which he offers for sale, on the 1st Monday in December, the "DeVore" or "Adams" tract of land—located in Elmwood township and containing 240 acres. Considering the improvements, the character and fertility of the land, the location (being in easy reach of Johnston and Edgefield), this is one of the most desirable places of which we have any knowledge. Anyone who is in quest of a country home or who is desirous of acquiring country property should be interested in this sale.

Owing to the very large troupe and the heavy expense incurred by the managers of the theatrical that is to appear in the opera house to-morrow evening, the price of admission has been put at 75 cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and 25 cents for gallery seats. These prices are very reasonable for such an attraction. Not a few of our people go to Augusta and Columbia (pay railroad fare and hotel bills) and pay even higher prices to see no better plays than "Taming a Husband" will be. Do not class it with cheap shows just because you can see it in Edgefield's opera house.

Fresh Buckwheat and New Crop Syrup just received. G. L. PENN & SON.

Very great interest will be felt in Augusta in the engagement of Miss Martha Glover, of Atlanta, to Mr. Barrett Phinizy, of Athens. Mr. Phinizy is closely related to two of the most influential and prominent Augusta families and is very widely connected throughout the state. A very cordial interest is felt in the engagement, which will be consummated on the 3rd of January. Miss Glover is a charming and handsome young woman, who enjoys a very great popularity in Atlanta. She is the niece and adopted daughter of Mr. James Hunter. She is a tall and graceful brunette of exquisite coloring and soft brown eyes. Hearty and sincere congratulations will be extended the young couple from their friends and relatives of this section.—Augusta Chronicle.

Miss Martha Glover is a niece of our fellow-townsmen, Mr. A. A. Glover, and is greatly beloved in Edgefield, having spent her childhood here and having visited relatives during recent years.

I say positively that there is no better line of clothing in Edgefield and that I can not be undersold. Give me an opportunity to prove what I say. C. E. MAY.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

On Tuesday evening of last week Mrs. Julia Hutson departed this life. She was the widow of the late William Hutson, and resided in the extreme lower portion of the county. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Hardy's church on Wednesday afternoon.

This good woman was a very devout member of Hardy's church and in the community her life and influence stood for those things that are good, pure and ennobling. She has now gone to reap the reward of the faithful. The nearest surviving relative of the deceased is a devoted sister, Mrs. George W. Medlock.

Bazaar at The College.

Three of the fairest and prettiest of the S. C. C. I. girls came to our sanctuary on Monday afternoon to request us to announce the Bazaar which they are planning to hold at the college on Friday evening, December the 8th. Of course we promised to make the announcement for them. How could we have helped it? We would have agreed to give them the entire paper and issued an extra "to boot" had they asked it. Well, the members of the Fidelity literary society—composed entirely of young ladies—desire to furnish their society hall and have hit upon this plan to raise the money. Their purpose is a very laudable one and these young ladies who are soon to be "sweet girl graduates" are certain to receive the generous, very generous, co-operation of the people of our town. We shall have more to say of the Bazaar in detail in our next issue.

Opera House Thursday Night.

The play, "Taming a Husband", that will be presented in the opera house on Thursday evening will surpass anything that has hitherto appeared before the Edgefield footlights. This comedy has been well received wherever it has been presented. A paper of Meridian, Miss., had the following to say of it:

The theatre goes of Meridian were accorded a treat last night in the way of Ruff and Dean's production of "Taming a Husband" one of the funniest musical comedies ever presented here. The cast and chorus, were exceptionally strong. Messrs. Ruff and Dean are to be highly complimented, on their comedy, as being far above the average. It is screamingly funny, and free from all suggestiveness or anything that would offend the most refined audience of ladies and children. The music furnished by their Royal Hungarian Orchestra deserves special mention also. The house was packed to its capacity.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil
